NELSON CAMPAIGN ANNOUNCES ALASKA REPUBLICAN PARTY ENDORSEMENT IN HOUSE DISTRICT 15 GOP PRIMARY ELECTION

David Nelson has won the endorsement of the Alaska Republican Party in the Primary Election which will be held on August 18. Nelson is challenging incumbent Representative Gabrielle LeDoux for the Republican nomination.

“I’m extremely proud to carry the endorsement of the Alaska Republican Party in this election,” Nelson declared. “It will have a decisive impact on this campaign”

“The ARP follows a very deliberative and careful procedure in considering pre-primary endorsements,” he continued. “I’m honored that the State Central Committee has voted to endorse me.”

Nelson explained that, in accordance with Article I Section 4 (e) (1) of the Alaska Republican Party Rules, he sent a letter requesting the endorsement to District 15 Republican Party officers who forwarded to the ARP State Central Committee with their recommendation that it be adopted. Nelson’s endorsement was announced after the State Central Committee conducted a 72 hour electronic vote of its members.

“We are proud to stand behind the Republican candidate that understands responsibility and integrity,” stated Leigh Sloan, the District 15 Alaska Republican Party Chair. “He is now the official candidate endorsed by the ARP.”

Nelson works on JBER as an Executive Administrator at the Missile Defense Agency. He is President-Elect of the Midtown Rotary Club, a volunteer member of the Northeast Community Council Safety Patrol and a former member of the Alaska Juvenile Justice Advisory Commission. A graduate of the University of Alaska, Anchorage, he earned a Commission in the Alaska Army National Guard through the school’s ROTC Program. This year, Second Lieutenant Nelson served on State Active Duty from March 17 to June 1 supporting his unit’s response to the COVID 19 emergency.

David Nelson is a member of the Alaska Army National Guard. Use of his military rank and job title does not imply endorsement by the Department of Defense, the Department of the Army or the Alaska Army National Guard.
